- Natural honey to aid in digestive regularity and support
- Natural pear juice to support energy production and immune support
- Delicious, light, sweet flavor

POSITIONING STATEMENT

Aloe vera has been one of the most widely used therapeutic plants throughout human history, and today we have even more nice things to say about it thanks to the discoveries of modern science.

Modere Aloe Vera is a liquid formulation containing a blend of pure aloe vera gel, botanical tea extracts, honey, and pear juice, designed to support overall digestive regularity, aid immune function, and hydrate the body while providing electrolytes for proper fluid balance. It's a feel-good formula that keeps you feeling balanced and regular. And let's be honest: When your digestive system is up to par, you're also up to par. That's why a shot of Aloe Vera is the perfect pick-me-up for your downtrodden system. It's an honest formula made with whole, natural ingredients.

If you're seeking proof that a simple solution is better, here it is.
